Only the foods listed below are traditionally Blessed for Easter: eggs- for life & the Resurrection; bread – Jesus, the bread of life; lamb, (and/or sausage), representing Christ, the Lamb of God; salt -purification; horse-radish – symbolic of the bitter sacrifice of Christ's cross unto death; ham - symbolic of great joy and abundance. (leave the chocolate bunnies, etc at home). A table will be provided on the side of the Sanctuary for you to place your food before Mass begins.

When the people heard that Jesus was entering the city of Jerusalem they went out to meet Him. They spread their cloaks before him while others took branches from the trees, as they cried aloud: Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna to the Son of David! Today, Palm Sunday, let our souls take the place of the welcoming branches as we join in the song sung by God’s Holy Children. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. The entering into Jerusalem is the beginning of Holy Week. We will follow Jesus into the garden of Gethsemane and witness His arrest, His trial and suffering passion. This will culminate in His great sacrifice on the Cross, which will cancel out our transgressions and open heaven’s gate that we may enter into eternal life through the glory of the Resurrection of Christ Jesus. Let us orient ourselves accordingly, so that we may begin this Holy week with the disposition of spirit that lends itself to the solemnity of this great mystery.
